Latest News for Cities: July 26, 2006 - The Town of Superior Supports Soap Box Derby Champion

The Town of Superior Supports Soap Box Derby Champion

Thanks to the efforts of the Town of Superior, the Superior Soap Box Derby Club, volunteers such as Maxine Leather; Executive Director of CAAG, Heather Patel; CAAG CDBG Director, and Yvonne Kube; CAAG Finance Director, among others, Central Arizona has produced a WORLD champion in All-American Soap Box Derby Racing, the oldest racing event in the country (aside from the Indianapolis 500)! 11 year old Mike Bridges who lives in Scottsdale, but is a member of the Superior Soap Box Derby club, competed with over 500 kids from around the world on Saturday, July 22, 2006, in Akron Ohio, to be named Rally Stock Division World Champion. The local club has held events in Superior for 4 years, and has "spread" to Miami and Payson. It is their goal to include kids from all over the CAAG Region in this age-old sporting event that focuses on wholesome traditions of family, fun and sportsmanship.
