

Fountain Spouts

Soapbox driver

Mike Bridges is back in the saddle again – or at least in the driver's seat for Soapbox Derby. The grandson of George and Sydney Bridges had a rough weekend in Tucson earlier this month (second, fourth, sixth and seventh places), but he spent time fine tuning his car and it paid off in Ventura, Calif. It was a two-race weekend and Mike took home two first places! They were his initial first-place finishes...last year in California he was consistently in third place out there. Congratulations!