

Mike back in Soap Box Derby

Mike Bridges of Scottsdale won the Stock Rally division of the All American Soap Box Derby last July.

This year he is returning to compete in the Super Stock Rally division.

He is the grandson of Fountain Hills residents George and Sydney Bridges.

Last year Mike was featured on CNN and ESPN for several days during live coverage from Akron. Local news also picked him up getting his trophies.

Mike was invited to compete since he was one of the top point earners in this year's rally circuit.

Competing in 40 races all over the country this year, he earned 200 points, which qualifies him for the "200 Point Club." Part of his recognition will be having his name engraved on a huge plaque in Akron, Ohio.

Local business MobileWest-Cars.com helps sponsor Mike with his racing. Information about the Soap Box Derby in Arizona can be found at AzSoap-BoxDerby.com.
